

MIDWEEK MUSIC

WILLIAM BYRD

with the Choir of Royal Holloway

Wednesday, 25 February 2026, 1:15pm

A programme featuring the finest works of Tudor Polyphony by William Byrd. Includes part of the “Great Service” – a 10-part masterpiece.

EVENT PROGRAMME

CHAPELCHOIR.CO.UK

EVENT PROGRAMME

WILLIAM BYRD

Sing Joyfully

William Byrd
1540-1623

O Lord, make thy servant Elizabeth

Agnus Dei (From Mass for 5 voices)

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona nobis pacem.

*Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world, give them rest.
Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world, give them eternal rest.*

A fancy

Performed by Rupert Gough.

Magnificat (From the Great Service)

UPCOMING EVENTS

Find more concert information at:
<https://www.chapelchoir.co.uk>

Join us next week for The sacred and profane:

The choral scholars present a variety of works for small choral ensembles.

Wednesday 4th March, 6:30pm – Chapel, Founder's Building

The Choir of Royal Holloway perform a selection of music from their new album, The Breath of Life, in the Chapel at Royal Holloway, University of London. Join us for a pre-concert drink from 6:30pm, before music from "one of England's finest choirs" (Laudate Magazine) plus a discussion between composer Matthew Coleridge and conductor Rupert Gough - and a chance to buy signed CD copies of the new album before its release.

CHAPELCHOIR.CO.UK

    YouTube