

MIDWEEK MUSIC

COLOURS OF THE ORGAN

with The Choir of Royal Holloway

Wednesday, 6 May 2026, 1:15pm

EVENT PROGRAMME

CHAPELCHOIR.CO.UK

EVENT PROGRAMME

COLOURS OF THE ORGAN

Chorale Prelude on 'Erschienen ist der herrliche Tag', BWV 629

Played by Daniel Ayers (Senior Organ Scholar)

J.S Bach
1685-1750

Retrospection (Elf on a Moonbeam)

Played by Daniel Ayers (Senior Organ Scholar)

Florence Price
1887-1953

Choral No. 3 in A minor

Played by Logan Williamson (Junior Organ Scholar)

César Franck
1822-1890

Prelude (2022)

Played by Daniel Ayers (Senior Organ Scholar)

Huw Morgan
b. 1975

Grands Jeux, from Suite Brève

Played by Daniel Ayers (Senior Organ Scholar)

Jean Langlais
1907-1991

UPCOMING EVENTS

Find more concert information at:

<https://www.chapelchoir.co.uk>

Join us next week for God is Gone Up:

Join the choir for a musical celebration of Ascensiontide. This programme brings together works by Finzi, Vaughan Williams, and Stanford, evoking the joy and majesty of Christ's Ascension and the sense of hopeful anticipation as we look toward new beginnings.

The Breath of Life

new choral music by Matthew Coleridge

The Choir of Royal Holloway

with Southern Sinfonia

also featuring Coleridge's iconic Requiem and a composer Q&A

"Music that reaches into the soul and lifts it skyward"

BBC
MUSIC

"The music bursts with life - it should be heard across the land"

Fanfare Magazine

LFCCM

London Festival of Contemporary Church Music

St Paul's Knightsbridge SW1X 8SH

Friday 15th May, 7pm

tickets £16 / £12.50 from ticketsource.com/lfccm-tickets

CHAPELCHOIR.CO.UK

    YouTube