

The Choir of Royal Holloway

BASS and ORGAN Scholarships available from September 2020

The Choir of Royal Holloway is considered to be one of the finest mixed-voice university choirs in the UK. The 24 choral scholars that constitute the College's Chapel Choir undertake a busy schedule of services, concerts and tours and recordings. Benefits include:

- A Scholarship of £700 for choral scholars, and £1500 for organ scholars per annum.
- An active recording schedule (Three releases in 2020, and three recording projects).
- Regular concert appearances (around 60 per annum), with a weekly lunchtime concert which is live-streamed.
- At least one tour per year, as well as Festival appearances around the UK.
- Regular broadcasts on BBC Radios 3 & 4.
- Opportunities to work with other ensembles, such as the Britten Sinfonia, Fretwork, and the London Mozart Players.
- Living in the beautiful campus, west of London.
- A highly-respected academic institution (a top 20 UK university 2020, with a Music Department regularly placed in the top-10), with average offers of AAB-ABB, with exciting prospects for graduates.
- A hugely diverse repertoire, and a focus on one-per-part ensemble singing.

"Oxbridge chapel choirs have long had it all their own way, but under the direction of Rupert Gough, Royal Holloway have become a serious rival." (New Statesman)

"The Choir of Royal Holloway College has attained standards of musicianship and technical refinement high above the reach of most student ensembles" (Classic FM Magazine)

"The mixed choir of Royal Holloway College makes a truly fabulous sound" (The Times)
